

Isaiah 11:1, 8-10

¹ A shoot will come up from the stump of Jesse; from his roots a Branch will bear fruit. ⁸ The infant will play near the hole of the cobra, and the young child will put his hand into the viper's nest. ⁹ They will neither harm nor destroy on all my holy mountain, for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea. ¹⁰ In that day the Root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples' the nations will rally to him, and his place of rest will be glorious.

1. If you loved a big tree at your house, what would it feel like to see the tree chopped down so just a stump was left?
2. What would it feel like to see a new branch growing out of that old stump?
3. Why would someone be happy to see Jesus at Christmas?
4. Where did baby Jesus rest when he was born?
5. Why would someone say Jesus' resting place is glorious?
